THE DOMINION FLAG.

Our readers will notice the impress of the proposed Dominion flag on this issue of The Progress. We do not know for a fact whether or not this design has been adopted as the national flag of the Dominion. If not, we cannot help thinking that the maple leaf would be more suitable than the seven-pointed star, which we take it refers to seven provinces. Hoping as we do that the number of provinces in the Dominion will very rapidly increase, the number of points on the star would constantly have to be changed.

CROP PROSPECTS.

The Northwest Indian Head and Qu'Appelle (in particular) is going to have a magnificent wheat crop this year—larger than ever before in its history, all agree. Those competent to judge say that wheat prices will start off at about 70c., about double last year's prices. Farmers are jubilant over their prospects. A prominent member of the Grain Exchange has said: "A great crop is now assured, and it is quite certain that the prices will give the upholders a good profit." This year's crop will prove a great advertisement for this district, and next year you won't be able to keep settlers out of this country if you build a Chinese wall around it.

A contemporary gives the following remedies for cabbage worms:

A teaspoonful of saltpepper in three gallons of water will kill cabbage worms or cause them to leave.

Water heated to 180 degrees has been used with considerable success.

The water is applied with an ordinary sprinkling pot.

ADVERTISING LOST AND FOUND CATTLE.

The present system of advertising lost and found cattle does not seem to fill the bill.

As at present the Northwest Gazette is the recognized medium, which would be all very well did that paper circulate among the people generally, but it does not do so.

Take as an instance the Municipality of South Qu'Appelle, how many copies of it are circulated, and among whom?

Six or seven at the most, and the only persons in receipt of it are the justices of the peace.

In fact, we are informed by one J. P., that he has not received a copy since, if ever.

He recollects nothing, February last.

Sometimes a magistrate is not within reach of those who have lost stock, and how is that party to render the day one to be remembered by young and old?

Get health and strength.

Save time by riding a bicycle.

Saturday Night is going to give four to the men and gentlemen sending for that paper. These are the celebrated Monarchs and the best made.

It is the biggest thing in the way of newspaper premiums ever offered in the west.

Some of our enterprising young people should bring these wheels to town.

Saturday Night is the best printed, illustrated and edited paper for the money sold.

See advertisement and then write them quick for sample copies and full instructions.

THE REMEDIAL ORDER.

MANITOBA'S ANSWER THERETO.

Resolution as Proposed in the Legislature —Memorial to the Governor-in-Council.

According to adjournment, the Manitoba Legislature met on Thursday, June, 13th.

After the usual routine of opening At-torney General Sifton gave notice that on Monday next the House would take into consideration a resolution on the school question. It is a very lengthy document and is framed in the form of a memorial addressed to His Excellency the Governor General in Council. The memorial first recites at length the clauses of the remedial order and sums up their effect on the legislation of the province. The reply is then made in the following words:

"The privileges which by the said order we are commanded to restore to our Roman Catholic fellow-citizens are substantially the same privileges which they enjoyed previously to the year 1880. Compliance to the terms of the order would restore Catholic separate schools with no more satisfactory guarantees for their efficiency than existed prior to the said date."

The educational policy embodied in our present statutes was adopted after an examination of the results of the policy theretofore followed under which the separate Roman Catholic schools (not sought to be restored) had existed for a period of upwards of nineteen years.

These schools were found to be inefficient. As conducted under the Roman Catholic section of the board of education they did not possess the attributes of efficient modern public schools.

Their conduct, management and regulation were defective. As a result of the removal of a large section of the population with no better means of education than was then supplied many people grew up in a state of illiteracy.

So far as we are aware there has never been an attempt made to defend these schools on their merits, and we do not know of any ground upon which the expenditure of public money in their support could be justified.

We are, therefore, compelled to respectfully state to Your Excellency in council that we cannot accept the responsibility of carrying into effect the terms of the remedial order.

Suggestions upon principle may be taken to any modification of our educational statistics which would result in the establishment of one or more sets of separate schools. Apart, however, from the objections upon principle there are serious objections from a practical educational standpoint. Some of these objections may be briefly indicated.

We labor under great difficulties in maintaining an efficient system of primary education. The school tax is far heavily upon our people. The large amount of land which is free from school taxes is the greatest source of country over which our small population is scattered presents obstacles to efficiency and progress. The reforms effected in 1880 have given an impetus to educational work but the difficulties which are inherent in our circumstances have constantly to be met. It will be obvious that the establishment of a set of Roman Catholic schools followed by a set of Anglican schools and possibly Mennonite, Icelandic and other schools would so impair our present system that any approach to even our present general standard of efficiency would be quite impossible.

We contemplate the inauguration of such a state of affairs with very grave apprehension. We have no hesitation in saying that we cannot be urged to any measure which to our minds, would more seriously imperil the minds of our province.

We believe that when the remedial order was made, there was not then available to Your Excellency in council full and accurate information as to the working of our former system of schools. We also believe that there was lacking the means of forming a correct judgment as to the effect upon the province of the changes indicated in the order.

Being impressed with this view, we respectfully submit that it is not yet too late to make a full and deliberate investigation of the whole subject. Should such a course be adopted we shall cheerfully assist in securing the most complete information possible. An investigation of this kind would furnish a substantial basis of fact upon which conclusions could be formed with a reasonable degree of certainty.

It is urged most strongly that upon so important a matter, involving as it does, the religious feelings and convictions of different classes of the people in Canada and the educational interests of a province which is expected to become one of the most important in the Dominion, no hasty action should be taken; but that on the contrary the greatest care and deliberation should be exercised and a full and thorough investigation made.

While we do not think it proper to enter upon a legal argument in this memorandum, we deem it our duty to briefly call attention to some of the legal and constitutional difficulties which surround the case. It is held by some authorities that any action taken by the parliament of Canada upon the subject will be irreverable. While this opinion may or may not be held to be so, it is in our judgment only necessary to point out that there are substantial grounds for entertaining such an opinion in order to emphasize the necessity for acquiring a most ample knowledge of the facts before any suggestion of parliamentary action is made.

It will be admitted that the two essentials of any effective and substantial restoration of Roman Catholic privileges are:

(1) The right to levy school taxes;

(2) The right to participate in the legislative reform grant.

Without these two points the separate schools cannot be properly carried on, and without them therefore any proposed restoration of privileges would be illusory.

It may be held that the power to collect taxes for school purposes conferred upon school boards by our federal constitution was conferred by virtue of the provisions of section 92 of the British North America Act and not by virtue of the provisions of section 22 of the Manitoba act. If this view be well founded then that portion of the act of 1880 which abolished the said right to collect taxes is not subject to appeal to Your Excellency in council and the remedial order and any subsequent legislative act of the Parliament of Canada (in so far as they may purport to restore the said right) will be ultra vires.

As to the legislative grant we hold that it is entirely within the control of the legislature of the province and that no part of the public funds of the province could be made available for the support of separate schools without the voluntary action of the legislature. It would appear, therefore, that any action of the parliament of Canada looking to the restoration of Roman Catholic privileges must, to be of real and substantial benefit, be supplemented by the voluntary action of the provincial legislature.

If this be the case, nothing could be more unfortunate from the standpoint of the Roman Catholic people themselves, than any hasty or peremptory action on the part of the Parliament of Canada, because such action would probably produce strained relations and tend to prevent the possibility of restoring harmony.

We respectfully suggest to Your Excellency-in-council that all of the above considerations call most strongly for full and careful deliberation, and for such a course of action as will avoid irritating complications. We deem it proper also to call attention to the fact that it is only a few months since the latest decision upon the subject was given by the judicial committee of the privy council. Previously to that time a majority of the members of the legislative assembly of Manitoba had either expressly or impliedly given pledges to their constituents which they feel in honor bound loyalty to fulfill.

"We understand that it has been lately suggested that private funds of the Roman Catholic Church and people had been invested in school buildings and land that are now appropriated for public school purposes. No evidence of such fact has ever been had before us so far as we can ascertain, but we profess ourselves willing if any such injustice can be established, to make full and fair compensation therefor.

In conclusion we beg respectfully to place on record our continued loyalty to Her Britannic majesty and to the laws which the parliament of Great Britain has in its wisdom seen fit to enact for the good government of Canada."

A NAPHTHA EXPLOSION.

Completely Wrecked a Four Story Building — Many Killed.

Henry Langley's harness shop, a four story building, 11 County street, Fall River, Mass., was recently blown up by naphtha. Over forty men were at work in the building at the time of the explosion, and only six have thus far been taken out of the wreckage. The fate of the others is unknown.

It is now definitely ascertained that there were forty-five men and women in the building at the time of the explosion. Nine of them are reported to have escaped alive. Seven bodies have been taken out of the ruins so far. This leaves twenty-nine to be accounted for.

The fire department, the police, and all the doctors in the city are on the scene.

The catastrophe was caused by a new boiler exploding in the basement of the building. It blew out the entire end of the structure, and allowed the upper floors to settle into a mass of ruins. Flames communicated with the ruins soon after the explosion and began to burn briskly. The firemen rushed to the scene and made heroic efforts in their endeavor to rescue the imprisoned work people. The shrubs from the girls in the ruins were mingled with the agonized cries of their friends outside. Ambulance calls were sent out hurriedly and every physician who could be reached was sent at once to the scene. Officers and houses in the vicinity were turned into temporary hospitals. It was shortly learned that nine had escaped. There were over forty-five persons employed the greater percentage of the number being women, but not all were in the building at the time. A girl by the name of Jaffert and her sister-in-law who worked side by side on the tiled floor escaped, one unburnt and the other with slight burns. The Jaffert girls say none of the girls or men knew what had happened. There was a terrible report followed by a shock; the roof seemed to lift then fall, and completely demolished the whole building.

The Jaffert girl and her sister-in-law were thrown to the middle of the road. The glass broke the window of the Stafford mill adjoining and injured several of the operators. The Star music hall has been made a morgue where Medical Examiner Dolan with a dozen doctors are installed.

We believe that when the remedial order was made, there was not then available to Your Excellency in council full and accurate information as to the working of our former system of schools.

We also believe that there was lacking the means of forming a correct judgment as to the effect upon the province of the changes indicated in the order.

Being impressed with this view, we respectfully submit that it is not yet too late to make a full and deliberate investigation of the whole subject.

Should such a course be adopted we shall cheerfully assist in securing the most complete information possible. An investigation of this kind would furnish a substantial basis of fact upon which conclusions could be formed with a reasonable degree of certainty.

Shaking Hands.

There is an art in shaking hands Not everybody understands; And as they go through life untought, The simple act expresses naught.

The fingers limp within our own Awaken no responsive tone From the electric wires, that send The hearty greeting to a friend.

But, oh, there is a simple touch, Gentle and soft, that means so much; The pulses of our souls are stirred, As if we heard the spoken word.

The outstretched hand, the hearty grasp, The fingers locked in loving clasp, Fresh strength and courage have bestowed To many a one along life's road.

Some lonely traveller it may be, Yearning for love and sympathy, And quick the sign to comprehend— "My heart is true; and I'm your friend!"

Thus one repels—another draws; And many are misguided because Not one in twenty understands The gracious art of shaking hands.

A Converted Purse.

"Certainly I am grateful to you for asking me. Put me down for $25."

A look of pleased surprise passed over the solicitor's face, succeeded by one of perplexity, for it happened that he knew that his friend had precisely the same salary as he, and that $25 was a generous fraction of the month's income.

"Oh, that's more than we expect, Frank, and that you can afford, too, I fear," he added, with the freedom of a comrade.

"On, no. Let me tell you how it is, Jack. You know I turned right about, when I became a Christian last winter; and I resolved at the start not to enter into any junior partnership with the world, and a senior partnership with the church.

W. FARR IN THE TOILS.

CAUGHT ON BOARD THE S. S. WARMOO.

He Was About to Sail for Hawaii—Confesses to the Detective Who Made the Arrest.

William Farr, the C. P. R. engineer, who is charged with arson, and who escaped from the Winnipeg police station about two months ago, has been captured. Such was the news conveyed in a brief telegram received by Chief of Police McRae. The arrest was made at Vancouver, where chief McRae has for some time kept the authorities on the lookout for the missing man. Since the escape of Farr the chief has been most active in his efforts to discover trace of the fugitive. He has been a resident of the Victoria, B.C., and he had done all in his power with the assistance of the provincial authorities to effect his arrest. It had been well understood that Farr was on the Pacific coast, and he was a man easily recognized.

Shortly after receiving word of Farr's arrest Chief McRae visited Miss Robinson, the young woman whose name has been connected with the case. The chief served Miss Robinson with a subpoena as witness at the forthcoming trial and also a production subpoena, the latter demanding any papers or documents in her possession. It is understood Miss Robinson handed over two important papers bearing on the case, without search being made—Winnipeg Free Press.

Solar Eclipses.

Some weeks ago, Prof. Wiggins announced that the total eclipse of the sun that was about to take place, March 1865, was the eclipse that occurred at the crucifixion. A correspondent called on him to enquire if the phenomena attending the eclipse was as he anticipated, also to learn the real object he had in view when he gave the information to the press.

"My object," he said, "was to convince scientists that the New Testament story of the darkness at Christ's death, now generally discredited, really took place, and that it was caused by the total eclipse of the sun." A large number of the greatest thinkers of our time believe that nearly all the books written about the time of the Christian era, which refer to Christ and his religion, are forgeries.

The learned French Jesuit, Hardouin, who died in 1729, says that the writings of the Christian fathers such as the works of Eusebius and Tertullian, were forged by the Benedictine monks of the fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

Now St. Jerome (A. D. 400), the translator of the Latin Vulgate, the only Bible acknowledged by the Roman Catholic Church, quotes a Greek writer named Philo, who wrote about A. D. 150, to prove that there was a remarkable eclipse of the sun at the time of Christ's death. St. Jerome says: "And so writes Philo, an excellent compiler of the Olympians, in his thirteenth book saying: 'In the fourth year of the 202 Olympiad, there was a great and extraordinary eclipse of the sun distinguished among all the suns distinguished by its magnitude, amounting almost to its entire extinction, from place to place just in time to avoid arrest.' Sicut, Haywood, in his last advice from Winnipeg was. It appears one you are on Farr's track, always with him, he's particularly suspicious and will soon fool you if you give him the slightest chance."

Haywood, who had been instructed to watch the boats eventually ran his man down, and just in the nick of time, as Farr was on board the Australian steamer Warrego, set sail bound to leave in London for Honolulu, his apparent destination. Haywood slipped on board the steamer and looked at Farr's photograph which he carried with him, and thought that a sad-visioned man crouching in the corner of the cabin, who had given the name of the steamer list "J. C. F." This man was not much like the photograph, he looked ten years older, a baird, his face was thin and he had a hunched look in his eyes. In the world as it had been made for the character of Matilda in "Matilda in Hell," but Haywood took no notice. When arrested the man's signature changed. He became cool and disinterested, and assumed the detective that was a case of mistaken identity, and laughed lightly, treating the whole affair as a rather pleasant joke. But Haywood had made up his mind to give no chance of finding him and in spite of Farr's marvellous pieces of evidence, left his luggage, and landed him at the head of the boat. On the way to the station Farr confessed his willing to let the whole matter drop if Haywood would allow him to return to Canada, but if he did not he would do it for him on the charge of his arrest. The detective told Farr he could risk running him in and had save his breath, for he was going to him right or not. When the man saw the game was up, he raised his tone entirely and said that he was Farr, but that all the writings of the Christian fathers are forgeries by the Benedictine monks.

Gibbons believed in this eclipse because Pliny did not mention it, but Pliny would not speak of a great eclipse that happened in some other country than his own. The earthquake force is now moving eastward towards India."

OF GREAT BENEFIT.

A. C. to Have More Railway Facilities in the Sea Future.

It is reported on apparently good authority that the manager of the Bank of Montreal at Vancouver having recently alluded to the circumstance that the long delayed scheme of railway extension to connect East Kootenay, West Kootenay and the Lethbridge district of Alberta is likely soon to be commenced. If so, the C. P. R. will doubtless be directly or indirectly connected with the scheme, a charter for part of which under the title of the B. C. Southern railway has long been obtained. The line, if run as proposed, would shorten Canada's transcontinental route by at least half a day, connection being made at Hope with the present line of the Canadian Pacific railroad. Another important object of the line would be the opening out of very large coking coal deposits in the Crow's Nest country, and the making of them utilizable for smelting purposes in the West Kootenay district. The line also would be of great value in developing gold mining in East Kootenay, an industry which is at last beginning to revive in that district, although the operations there in hand as compared with those of West Kootenay are as yet of a limited character.

The Hon. Col. Baker, provincial minister of mines and immigration, is largely interested in land in the Crow's Nest country, and has long endeavored to bring about the suggested scheme of railway extension. He will consequently doubtless do all in his power individually and officially to further the project which will be of great benefit to British Columbia's mining interests in general.

A Rancher's Son Kidnapped.

The 12 year old son of Marcus McKinlay, rancher near Chinook, Mont., has been kidnapped and held for ransom by a gang of robbers headed by Frank Turner. The boy's parents are distressed. A posse of ranchers and cattlemen started after the robbers whom they trailed some distance into the mountains but lost the trail. Another posse was organized and the search is being continued.

THIRTY YEARS TORTURE.

HANDS AND FINGERS TWISTED OUT OF SHAPE WITH RHEUMATISM.

The Story of an Old Man Now Near the Foot of Life's Hill—How Relief Came to Him After Repeated Failures and Disappointments.

From the Kempville Advance.

I am now about at the foot of the hill of life, having attained the 70th year of my age, and never during that time have I made a statement more willingly and conscientiously than now. My body has been tortured with pain upwards of thirty years caused by rheumatism, and there are thousands enduring a like affliction who need not if they had but been more expert in the means of relief. The disease first affected my hands and then went to my arms and legs. Like many sufferers, I spared neither time nor expense in seeking something to alleviate the pain. The disease had made me so helpless that I was unable to put on my coat and my fingers were being twisted out of shape. There seemed not a shadow of a hope of relief and very naturally I became disheartened and despondent, and time after time I have given up in despair. While in Arizona three years ago, I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I sent for six boxes in order to give them a fair trial. I followed the directions closely, and by the time the fourth box was finished, the pain had greatly lessened and I was much improved. My friends having witnessed the wonderful effect upon my body could not help admiring the Pink Pills, and being about to leave for the east, I gave the remaining two boxes to them.

SUCCESSOR TO POPE LEO.

Possibility of a Non-Italian Head for the R. C. Church.

The Rome correspondent of the London Standard telegraphs that it is announced there that the papal nuncio at Paris, Lisbon and Madrid and Vienna will be created cardinals. The news arouses much interest in Vatican circles, because it will disturb the equilibrium of the preponderance of the Italian cardinals in the Sacred College. The Pope, in announcing the fact, said: "We hope thus to create a position more in conformity with papal interests in the world and to furnish the Sacred College the means to successfully surmount the difficulties and delicate period of our succession."

Another dispatch says with reference to the same subject: "Mgr. Jacobin, the nuncio at Lisbon, is regarded with great interest in connection with the succession. More important, however, is the growing possibility of a non-Italian pope. For cogent reasons this could only be an American, a Swiss or a Belgian. The first, in the person of Cardinal Gibbons, is the least unlikely. The other candidates with the exception of Cardinal Barboza and Cardinal Vanvitelli, are fading away. The proverb will probably again hold good that the cardinal who starts as the favorite in the conclave is generally defeated. The Pope often touches good humorously, upon the subject of his successor. One of his jokes is to flatter some cardinal present by hinting that he may become the next pope."

FAST STEAM YACHTS.

They Will Race for $1,000 and a $500 Challenge Cup.

The much talked off race between the fastest steam yachts in the world, the Vamoose and Judge, will take place shortly over the eight mile course of Long Island Sound. The match was made last February for $1,000 a side. Since then the famous Yankee Boudoir and Rex have entered for the contest, which promised to be the most interesting ever held as all four are built expressly for speed. The Judge has the advantage of length, but the Vamoose has eight hundred horse power, just double her rival, and has beaten every boat that ever contested against her including the Mary Powell which is considered the fastest steamboat ever built. Besides the sweepstakes of a $1,000 each, the winner will receive a $500 challenge cup which she must defend against all comers.

They Took a Tumble.

At Chicago recently four big Lincoln Park polo ponies on which was chassis a little carriage for the ladies drove for several miles but instead of yielding the quartette landed in a promenade leading on the road while the fair riders raised her cap and vanished in the distance. The girl's bloomers caused all the trouble. They were of old gold and satin, fitting almost glove tight. The leggings were very much like silk stockings just a shade darker than the bloomers, while her dainty feet were encased in tan Oxford. Her green satin jacket was embroidered with yellow silk, and trimmed with ribbons of the same color; above all was perched a green yachting cap. The chase was witnessed by thousands of visitors who cheered the girl and hooted the hooligans.

DOCTORS AND FLY BLISTERS FAIL.

But One Dose of South American Rheumatic Cure Relieves, and Half a Bottle Cures.

Robert E. Gibson, Pendleton's well known merchant: "I contracted rheumatism in a very severe form in 1888, and have suffered untold misery every spring since. I have repeatedly applied fly blisters with but little success. Doctors whom I have consulted likewise failed to relieve. I was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure by Mr. W. F. C. Bethel, of the Dickson Drug Company. The first dose gave instant relief, and half a bottle cured.

As a cure for rheumatism this remedy is certainly peerless.

CANNERY for Winnipeg.

For several years there has been talk in Winnipeg of establishing a cannery factory, many reasons being advanced in support of the contention that it would be profitable. Unfortunately, however, no steps have been taken toward the enterprise, but now, it is learned, that there is every likelihood of the early establishment of quite an extensive canning factory. Two or three Winnipegers of ample means have become associated to carry through the scheme, but until they have further advanced their arrangements they desire their names withheld. It is understood to be the intention to can large quantities of tomatoes, corn and other vegetables which are cheap and plentiful in this province.

Gold in Oklahoma.

More excitement prevails over the gold strike near Guthrie, Okla., than during the last Kickapoo rush. Messrs. Nicholas Salter and others have just returned and brought several kilos of one. They report fabulous finds and say the people are confident they have struck the richest gold fields ever found. The principal working are in the hills at the head of Boggy creek, about fifteen miles southwest of Arapahoe, though traces of gold are to be found all along the line from the head of Cob Creek, in Caddo county, to the east line of Greer county, a distance of about forty-five miles. Arapahoe is almost deserted by people leaving the gold fields, and prospectors are flocking there from all parts of the country. The farmers have deserted their farms and ranches for several miles around and are there digging.

Local and General

—Remember the Wedding Sisters appear in Qu'Appelle on July 13th.

—The Wedding sisters present a classic and chaste performance.

—Bring your brothers, your sisters, your cousins and your aunts to see the Wedding Sisters.

—Keep your eye on the date of the Church of England picnic. See advertisement in another column.

—The creamery seems to be doing pretty good work, the output being over a ton of butter a week.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school picnic will be held on the 19th July, at Mr. Berseca's. All invited.

—Mr. Joseph Robinson, contractor of our town, has secured the contract for the wood-work of the new hospital at Indian Head.

—Our heavy stable has again changed hands. Messrs. Brine and Featherstone caught Fort Qu'Appelle, having purchased the business.

—Handsome posters announcing the dates of the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition arrived Tuesday and are posted conspicuously about town.

—The Women's Guild of St. Peter's church, intend holding a bazaar at the picnic at St. John's college, on the 4th July. Some very good and useful things will be sold.

—A copy of the programme of the second annual meet of the Regina Bicycle club, which takes place at Regina, Aug 3d and 5th, has been received, and may be seen at this office.

—Every effort is being made by the Indian Head committee to make the sports to be held there on Dominion Day a complete success. Visitors may depend on having a good day's sport.

—The rain fall in Qu'Appelle for the season up to Wednesday last was 3 60, reported from the Qu'Appelle observatory. The rain for the last few days must have increased this by at least an inch, if not more.

—As we mentioned in a previous issue, a gun club has been formed. General practice has been retarded by the non-susceptibility of the traps, but it is expected, however, that every thing will be in fine tune on Friday night.

—The Masonic lodges of Qu'Appelle, Fort Qu'Appelle and Indian Head will observe the Festival of St. John's next Sunday at Indian Head, and attend service at the new church there. His Lordship the Bishop of Qu'Appelle will officiate.

—We are sorry to hear that when playing football one day last week, Mr. W. McNaughton, of Springbrook, brother of Mr. J. McNaughton, of this town had the misfortune to break one of his legs. It is an unfortunate time of the year for any farmer to be laid up. We wish him a speedy recovery.

—We wish to correct an error that appeared in our report of the council meeting in our last issue. Referring to the financial statement, the amount to the credit of the town improvement fund should read 54 cents, and not $343 10, and the sum paid to A. Gray should read $13, and not $39, as stated.

—The hail storm on Saturday last left its mark in several places in the neighborhood, notably on Mr. Musgrave's farm, where an ox was struck dead while plowing, but fortunately the man who guided the plow remained unharmed. On Messrs. S. Bailey and Jagger's farm the electric current took effect at a corner of a fence, running along and splitting eleven posts. Mr. Harry Mitchell's garden, which, up to the time of the storm, gave promise of a heavy yield, was sadly cut about, and the lightning struck a hen coop containing two hens and thirty five chickens, killing them all. Mr. Nachout's garden and Mr. Boyce's were considerably damaged, though not so severely.

—We would direct the attention of our readers to the notice in another column re the Church of England picnic, to be held at St. John's College on July 4th. A good programme is provided. We notice especially a football tournament for a cup valued at $30. Altogether a good time is anticipated.

—The picnic in connection with the Methodist church, which was to have taken place on Saturday, in the driving park, had to be postponed, in consequence of the rain, until the following Monday, when, in consequence of the threatening weather, it had again to be postponed until July, the date yet to be fixed.

—It is proposed that the agricultural society hold a preliminary show in Qu'Appelle on the 13th July, in order to select the agricultural society's exhibit at the Territorial Exhibition. All grain, etc., can be left in town with the party appointed by the council, who will take charge of it and forward the same to Regina. We understand the society have adopted the suggestion.

—A lawn social in connection with the Presbyterian church took place in the driving park on Friday last. The day was all that could be desired, the attendance was large and refreshments abundant. During the afternoon various games were indulged in, including football, trap shooting and footrace. It was astonishing to his friends the way in which Sandy established his reputation as a sprinter.

—S. Peter's day at S. Peter's pro-cathedral: On Friday, the eve of the patronal festival, there will be choral evensong with sermon by Rev. W. E. Brown, rector of S. Paul's, Regina. On Saturday, S. Peter's day, services will be at 8:30, 11, and 7:30. On Sunday, festival services will be preached by the vicar, in the morning, on "Parish Finance," in the evening, on "Spiritual Advance."

—Our heavy stable has again changed hands. Messrs. Brine and Featherstone caught Fort Qu'Appelle, having purchased the business.

—Handsome posters announcing the dates of the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition arrived Tuesday and are posted conspicuously about town.

—The Women's Guild of St. Peter's church, intend holding a bazaar at the picnic at St. John's college, on the 4th July. Some very good and useful things will be sold.
